I went with CAT for the Valley Of Flowers - Hemkund Sahib trek. Our Captain was Rakshit Chawla. We were stuck midway twice because of landslides and road closures but Rakshit's good networks ensured that we could utilise even such extra days to visit places like Auli, Badrinath Dham, Mana village, etc. (on extra expense). Another good part was that Rakshit had updates about the landslide situations and made sure of our safety first. Overall, I had a good experience with CAT. The only thing I felt which could be improved was the food in our hotel stays.

It was an amazing experience with Capture A Trip for the valley of flowers trek. The best part was the group captain(Rakshit Chawla) who took care of all the members of the trek and we could rely on him for any kind of help or issues. I would highly recommend to opt for capture a trip for valley of flowers trek.

I recently had an amazing trip to Valley of Flowers and Hemkund Sahib with "Capture a Trip" and it was an amazing experience. Our trip captain Rakshit Chawla was less of a captain and more of a friend who took the responsibility of each and every member of the group and made sure that all of the group members remain safe and sound.

We had so much fun playing uno and Dumb Charades and our captain Rakshit was the one who made sure that all the team members engage and enjoy with each other. I would definitely recommend you all to travel with Capture a Trip.

Great travel experience with superb services and hospitality.

ABOUT DESTINATION

VALLEY OF FLOWERS

Valley of Flowers, nestled in the Chamoli district of Uttarakhand, is a breathtaking UNESCO World Heritage Site renowned for its vibrant meadows blanketed with alpine blooms. Perched at an altitude of over 3,600 meters in the Western Himalayas, this ethereal valley comes alive during the monsoon season, unveiling a riot of colors with over 500 species of wildflowers. Surrounded by snow-capped peaks and nourished by glacial streams, the valley is also part of the Nanda Devi Biosphere Reserve, rich in rare flora and fauna. Ideal for trekkers, botanists, and nature enthusiasts, the Valley of Flowers offers a soul-stirring experience with its serene beauty, mystical charm, and a sense of untouched wilderness that feels like nature's own canvas.
