About Kerala

National Geographic's Traveller magazine listed Kerala in the 'Ten Paradises of the World' and '50 must visit places of a lifetime'. Being a coastal region rich in greenery and with a unique culture, the state has attracted tourists from across the globe since time immemorial. On these hill slopes are cultivated expansive stretches of coffee, tea, rubber and fragrant spices such as cardamom, pepper and clove. Kerala tourism promotes long chain of lush, mid-clad hill stations that are home to exotic wildlife. Kerala offer the most enchanting experience of nature in all its virgin beauty. Kerala is not only known for its hill stations, backwaters and the scenic beauty but also for its beaches. After Goa, Kerala is said to have most of the beaches in India hence making it a beach destination.

The long coastline of Kerala is filled with multiple cultures, lives and traditions. From the local fishermen to the international tourists, each of the beaches especially the beaches of Kovalam, Marari and Varkala, is always filled and is full of energy. All the beaches of Kerala offers you a unique and one of a kind experience lasting a lifetime. Kerala's backwaters is the most popular tourist attraction of Kerala which enhance the Kerala Tourism to a large scale. Backwater tourism is centered mostly around Alappuzha, Kollam and Kumarakom. Boat races held during festival seasons are also a major tourist attraction which is also a great promoter of Kerala tourism. Backwater tourism is centered mostly around Alappuzha, Kollam and Kumarakom.
